QUESTION 1

For the seventh consecutive year, Intelligence Community employee job satisfaction ranks the IC as one of the "Best Places to Work in the Federal Government," according to an independent analysis of federal workers' job satisfaction and commitment. The IC finished in first place in national security and second overall – up from fourth place in 2014 – among large agencies that employ more than 15,000 full-time permanent employees, a category which includes 19 organizations. Rankings were compiled by the Partnership for Public Service and announced today. Additionally, the IC finished in first place in teamwork, second in pay, effective leadership, employee skills-mission match and third in strategic management.

The data for this ranking study was gathered by _____.

- A. an agency outside the Intelligence Community
- B. a large agency within the IC
- C. the Federal Government
- D. the Intelligence Community

Correct Answer: A

QUESTION 2

If you are thirsty, most likely you are already dehydrated. Most people underrate the importance of drinking water all day long. They wait until their throats are parched or they eat meals before they drink any fluids – and they usually don't choose water. Since the human body is about two-thirds water, drinking it is essential to maintaining good health. Just a few of the benefits of staying hydrated are better memory throughout the day, increased energy, and less tiredness.

In this context, parched means _____.

- A. hydrated
- B. sore
- C. dry
- D. wet

Correct Answer: C

QUESTION 3

Wales was in ancient times divided into three parts nearly equal, consideration having been paid, in this division, more to the value than to the just quantity or proportion of territory. They were Venedotia, now called North Wales; Demetia, or South Wales, which in British is called Deheubarth, that is, the southern part; and Powys, the middle or eastern district. Roderic the Great, or Rhodri Mawr, who was king over all Wales, was the cause of this division. He had three sons, Mervin, Anarawt, and Cadell, amongst whom he partitioned the whole principality.

Wales was divided into divisions because _____.

- A. Natural boundaries, such as rivers and mountains made the division necessary
- B. Wales was too large for the King to oversee personally
- C. The King of Wales wanted his sons to rule
- D. all of the above

Correct Answer: C

Explanation:

The rationale for the division is explained in the final sentence. The passage makes no reference to the size of Wales or the natural boundaries.

QUESTION 4

The U.S. Department of Justice has prepared a report about hate crimes in the United States between 1997 and 1999. In 60% of hate crime incidents, the most serious offense was a violent crime, most commonly intimidation or simple assault. The majority of incidents motivated by race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, or disability involved a violent offense, while two-thirds of incidents motivated by religion involved a property offense, most commonly vandalism. Younger offenders were responsible for most hate crimes. Thirty-one percent of violent offenders, and 46% of property offenders were under age 18.

The majority of hate crimes during this period can be classified as _____.

- A. property offenses
- B. violent crimes
- C. assault
- D. intimidation

Correct Answer: B

Explanation:

60% of all hate crimes during the period were violent crimes. Assault and intimidation are examples of this category.

QUESTION 5

All of the laws enforced by Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, except for the Equal Pay Act, require you to file a Charge of Discrimination before you can file a job discrimination lawsuit against your employer. In addition, an individual, organization, or agency may file a charge on behalf of another person in order to protect the aggrieved person's identity. There are time limits for filing a charge.

The word aggrieved, as used in the above passage, most nearly means _____.

- A. distressed
- B. wounded
- C. pained
- D. upset

Correct Answer: A
