QUESTION 2

The grave problems that affected him were the purely _____ ones of hunger, pain and fatigue.

- A. physical
- B. imaginary
- C. irrelevant
- D. hereditary
- E. coincidental

Correct Answer: A

Hunger, pain and fatigue cannot be described as "imaginary", or "irrelevant", or "hereditary", or "coincidental" problems. They can best be described as "physical" problems. So, "physical" is the answer.

QUESTION 3

What is the purpose of this email?

Andrew, This year, Mom and Dad will be traveling to Hawaii for Christmas. Dylan and I hoped we could still get together at the house for the sake of maintaining tradition for our kids. If you and Susan don't mind, we'd like to arrive two days before Christmas, as always, and uphold our typical schedules. Because Mom and Dad won't be here, we'll need help making Christmas dinner and desserts, and will also need help decorating the house for Christmas. Could you bring lights and ornaments? We will be providing the tree. Finally, we need help transporting all of our presents and decorations this year. Would you mind storing some of our decorations in your car for the drive to Mom and Dad's? Let me know! -Sarah

- A. to inform Sarah's family of her Christmas plans
- B. to request Andrew's assistance in maintaining Christmas traditions
- C. to request Andrew's assistance in caring for Sarah's children

D. to inform Andrew that his parents would be gone for Christmas

Correct Answer: B

QUESTION 4

What can be deduced about Paul and Samantha's relationship from the 2nd and 3rd paragraphs of the story?

"The $100 Bill" Samantha pedaled quickly, glancing down at her watch as often as her balance would allow. The clock's face read 10:57, sending a spike of panic shooting up her spine. She bent further over her bike, willing her legs to go faster. She screeched to a stop in front of a large restaurant bearing a bright blue, neon sign, her ears ringing, sweat breaking out on her skin. She hurriedly locked her bike to the lone pole positioned in front of the building, before pushing her way through the heavy glass front doors. "You're late." Samantha stopped short, turning to face her boss. She was greeted with a stern face, her boss's lips a thin line. She shook her head in apology. "I'm sorry, Paul. My bike's tires were flat, and I forgot my I.D. badge, so I had to turn back?" Paul held up his hand, cutting her off. "Just don't let it happen again." Samantha threw her hair into a ponytail, hoping her shift would prove more successful as the day wore on. She nearly ran to her first table of the day, plastered a smile on her face, and greeted her first customers of the day. She responded to their questions politely, though her mind was still occupied by Paul's disappointed expression as she ran in the door. Despite her initial mistakes, Samantha worked hard to remain chipper and upbeat, answering her customers' questions to the best of her ability, forcing herself to smile when her eyes began to glaze over with tears. As her first customers left, she caught the eye of the elderly gentleman with the group. He winked, and walked through the doors. Confused, Samantha began to gather the dishes from the table and there, staring up at her, was a crisp $100 bill. She let a tear roll down her cheek. Her day had just gotten better.

- A. Paul, habitually, does not treat Samantha well.
- B. Paul is a mean boss.
- C. Paul does not care what Samantha does.
- D. Paul's disappointment is a source of stress for Samantha.

Correct Answer: D

QUESTION 5

According to the paragraph, what is the purpose of engaging in a trial period when hiring a tutor?

When faced with a difficult academic task, many students turn to tutors for assistance. Tutors range widely in specialty and cost, including tutors who focus exclusively on reading, and others who work in broad categories such as general math. Tutors may be found in variety of ways, including checking with your local school and seeking out prospective tutors online. When searching for a tutor, however, recognize that different specialties may incur additional fees or charges. When selecting a tutor, consider establishing a trial period to ensure personality types mesh well and services deliver what they promise.

- A. to ensure that the student and tutor are well-paired, and to ensure that the tutor is providing adequate services
- B. to ensure that the student passes his/her classes
- C. to ensure that the tutor is not scamming the student
- D. to ensure that the tutor meets the student and establishes a rapport

Correct Answer: A
