QUESTION 10*HOTSPOT

You are designing a webpage that tests a user's ability to remember a list of ordered items in a particular category. The page must contain a header that displays the category and a list of items in that category. An example is shown in the exhibit. (Click the Exhibit tab.) Exhibit Fruit

1.

Apple

2.

Pear

3.

Orange

This page will test your ability to remember the order of the preceding items.

Glance at the list for 3 seconds.

Then close your eyes and recite the items in the order listed.

Illustration of the web page that contains the word Fruit at the top of the page in large, bold letters, following by a numbered list with the words, apple, pear, and orange. There are three additional sentences at the bottom of the page. The first sentence is, "This page will test your ability to remember the order of the preceding items." The second sentence is "Then close your eyes and recite the items in the order listed."

How should you complete the markup? To answer, select the appropriate markup segment in the answer area. NOTE: Each correct selection is worth one point.
